

The image features a black background with several abstract, hand-drawn red lines. These lines form various shapes, including concentric ellipses, elongated ovals, and some more complex, overlapping loops. The lines are drawn with a thick, slightly irregular stroke, giving them a sketchy, organic feel. Some lines are horizontal, while others are tilted or curved. The overall composition is minimalist and modern.

Cuando compre un espejo para el baño voy a verme la cara
voy a verme
pues qué otra manera hay decíme qué otra manera de saber quién soy.
